WEEK 8 HOMEWORK

For this week, try to do the following:

1. Depending on your morning routine, print out and post the ‘Brush Hair’ domain in your restroom and reclaim that domain for txʷəlšucid.
2. There is not yet online materials for this domain yet, so listen to Zeke’s recordings.
3. Work in the “gʷat kʷ(i) adsulaʔbdxʷ” conversation throughout your day. Ask your kids, ask your coworkers, ask yourself! If you or they don’t know the txʷəlšucid word for someone, just use English for now. Ask me for the txʷəlšucid next week.
4. Continue working on “čad kʷ(i) adsʔuʰxʷ” by asking yourself or others where they went today.
5. Review the video class recording on YouTube. I will send you all the link via email.
6. Beyond studying, try to use the txʷəlšucid for thirty-five minutes every day.
7. Keep track of how much you use txʷəlšucid each day.
