

syayusadəb txʷəl ti ʔaxʔaʔ ʔʷəl WEEK 9 HOMEWORK

For this week, try to do the following:

1. Print out whichever domain is appropriate for your morning grooming routine and post it in your restroom and reclaim this domain for txʷəlšucid.
2. There are not yet any materials on the website about these particular grooming domains, so listen to Zeke's recordings.
3. Work in the “gʷat kʷ(i) adsuʔudʔudbid” conversation throughout your day. Ask your kids, ask your coworkers, ask your cat! If you or they don't know the txʷəlšucid word for someone, just use English for now. Ask me for the txʷəlšucid next week.
4. Use the “Conversation Cheat Sheet” and practice the three conversations we've worked on since Week 7.
5. Review the video class recording on YouTube. I will send you all the link via email.
6. Beyond studying, try to use the txʷəlšucid for thirty minutes every day.
7. Keep track of how much you use txʷəlšucid every day.

KEEP USING YOUR DOMAINS! I will see you next quarter!
